

POWDER DELIGHTS OLD INHABITANTS

Members of Association Say Birth Day Celebration Was a Grand Affair.

The oldest inhabitants of the city declared the celebration given last night by the members of the Association of Old Inhabitants, a grand affair. The celebration was held at the Hotel Hamilton, and was a most successful one. The program consisted of a dinner, a play, and a dance. The dinner was served by the members of the association, and was a most delicious one. The play, "The Old Inhabitants," was a most interesting one. The dance was a most successful one. The celebration was a grand affair, and was a most successful one.

were sung by Arthur Pierce, W. A. Morrell, and Byron Blodgett. A paper entitled, "Reminiscences of Early Washington," by Mrs. W. M. Smith, told of interesting bits of history connected with Esby's Point, where in the days before the civil war a shipbuilding industry was established. A portrait of Thomas Smith, a prominent resident of the District before the civil war was presented to the association, by E. S. Hubbard in behalf of Hiram Lodge, No. 13, F. A. A. M. A committee to make arrangements for the annual Fourth of July celebration of the association was appointed.

TRY MRS. PANKHURST AS WINDOW BREAKER

Militant Leader Among Those Who Are Defendants in a Damage Suit.

LONDON, June 5.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, her daughters, Cristabel and Sylvia; Pethick Lawrence and Mrs. Lawrence, and Mrs. Tuke, regarded as foremost leaders of the militant suffragettes, were placed on trial today before Justice Darling and a special jury in the King's bench division, as defendants in the damage suit brought by west-end merchants. Robinson & Cleaver and other dealers of the west end are suing the Pankhursts, Lawrences, and Mrs. Tuke for damages for window smashing. The suit is regarded as a test, and accordingly the hearing attracted considerable attention. Mrs. Pankhurst is in a nursing home recuperating from her most recent hunger strike in Holloway jail, and could not attend the trial. Miss Cristabel Pankhurst is an exile in France, and Miss Sylvia Pankhurst failed to answer. The Lawrences and Mrs. Tuke, through counsel, disclaimed all responsibility for the window smashing indulged in by the militants, and by inference placed the blame on Mrs. Pankhurst and her daughters. The court room was crowded with eager spectators, most of them members of the Women's Social and Political Union, with banners and ribbons.

Puffs Preserve Life.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 5.—A profusion of "puffs" worn by Mrs. Mary Leatherbury, of 22 North Texas avenue, saved her from suffering a fractured skull when she fell from a street car at New York and Atlantic avenues, striking on her head. She is in the City Hospital, suffering from concussion of the brain.
